Easter Sunday
30/31 Mar 2024

Dear Parishioner,

As we gather to celebrate the glorious Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ, let us reflect upon the journey of Lent that prepared us for this most important feast of the liturgical year. Through prayer, fasting, and works of charity, we have sought to prepare our hearts and minds to fully embrace the profound joy of Easter.

I was particularly heartened to see so many of you participate in the Sacrament of Confession last Monday at Holy cross. Reconciliation with the Lord is a profound sign of our willingness to turn away from darkness and embrace the light of Christ anew.

Today, let us remember that through His Resurrection, Jesus Christ has conquered death itself. Our lives, so beautifully created by God, cannot be extinguished by death. In this hope, we entrust our beloved departed parishioners and family members into His comforting hands, knowing that they too share in the promise of eternal life.

Yet, even as we rejoice, we must also bring before the Lord our own fragilities and struggles. Just as Christ arose from the darkness of the tomb, may we too, through His power, arise from the shadows of our lives and shine with the light of His love.

May our Risen Lord fill your hearts and homes with Easter peace and joy, now and always.

A special welcome to those who are new to Holy Cross Catholic Church, Catford! Whether you're new to the area or simply seeking a new faith community, I extend to you a heartfelt welcome.

At Holy Cross, we strive to be a welcoming and friendly parish. Our parishioners are open arms waiting to greet you and make you feel at home. If you have any questions or need some guidance, please don't hesitate to reach out to me directly or to any of our Welcome Ministers. You can easily identify them by their sashes worn from Easter onwards. These sashes proudly declare "FRIENDS OF CHRIST" – a fitting representation of our welcoming spirit.

As you settle into our church family, we encourage you to explore ways to deepen your faith and connect with others. Over time, you may find yourself drawn to volunteer opportunities such as becoming a lector (reader) or participating in other ministries. We also extend a warm invitation to bring your family members and friends along on this faith journey. Together, let us all be apostles, sharing the love and message of Jesus Christ with others.

Welcome, dear friends! You are now part of our Holy Cross family

Be Connected: We are all part of the vibrant body of Christ here in our parish, but there are so many ways to deepen those connections and nurture our spiritual lives! Of course, the very best way is to join us for Mass regularly. As we break bread together, we become more than a crowd; we become a true family. Don't be afraid to smile at new faces, introduce yourself, and extend a warm welcome.

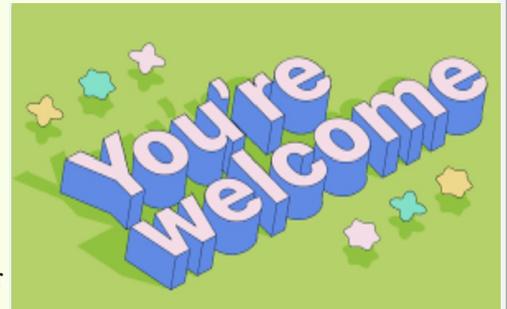

Also, be sure to pick up our parish newsletter each week. You'll find important updates, inspiring reflections, and announcements about upcoming events. If you're not receiving our newsletter electronically, there are a couple of easy ways to connect: Send an email to [catford@rcaos.org.uk] to have your address added to our list or Scan this QR code with your phone to join. Let's strengthen our bonds as a community, and let our lights shine brightly together in the service of the Lord.

Want to Become a Catholic? If you are not a Catholic and perhaps a loved one, a friend, or a quiet yearning has brought you here, please know that the Catholic Church welcomes all with open arms. If you'd like to learn more about our faith, about the path toward becoming Catholic, please come and speak with me after the service or reach out to us by email. It would be a true honour to accompany you on this journey.

Tonight, we also witness the culmination of a beautiful journey for several individuals who will enter full communion with the Catholic Church, receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion. Francesca Tafri-Allen, Aaron Kong, Kieran Tresadern, Florence Obeng, Elli Elca De Havillain, Vanessa Borsatto, and Kristina Ika – we welcome you with open arms into our spiritual family! Let us all offer our prayers for them, and for all catechumens and candidates as they embark on the fullness of life within the Church.

May the light of the Risen Christ guide you and illuminate your path. Fr Antony
